TESTING THAT ALIGNS with your Homeschool Education

Homeschool Group Testing

While many of today's assessments align with public-school curriculum, Classic Learning Test's (CLT) assessments are designed to complement a homeschool education. CLT's exams for grades 3-12 can be taken individually or with a group, feature meaningful reading content, and connect students to 250+ homeschool-friendly colleges.

CLT analytics reports, included with each test, equip parents and groups with insights on 15+ academic domains, helping them provide the best homeschool education possible.
